A NEW ERA

Radford has a new head baseball coach for the first time since 2007. Karl Kuhn takes over the reigns of the Highlanders after spending the last 16 seasons as the pitching coach at Virginia.

KEEPING CONTINUITY

While Karl Kuhn may be the new head coach, the first-year skipper kept a couple of familiar faces on his staff. Josh Reeves and Matt Rein each return for their third season as assistant coaches for the Highlanders and will be the hitting coach and pitching coach, respectively.

LEADING THE PACK

Radford infielder J.D. Mundy was named the Big South Conference Preseason Player of the Year, as voted on by the league’s 10 head coaches. Mundy is Radford’s returning leader in all three triple crown categories (average, home runs, RBIs) and was also named one of college baseball’s top 40 hitters.

PRESEASON FEELING

Radford was picked to finish third in the Big South, as voted on by the coaches in the league’s annual preseason poll.

IT’S BRUCE’S TIME TO SHINE

Bruce Hudson earned Radford’s first weekly honor of the season after pitching to the tune of a 0.62 ERA during the 2019 season with a 4-1 record and a save. After redshirting during the 2018 season, Hudson’s numbers dipped to a stellar 0.62 ERA over 2020, plus the potential of the Big South Tournament.

NEED FOR SPEED

Radford improved in its mission to get faster on the basepaths with the addition of outfielder Sean Cheely. The JUCO All-American stole over 70 bases in his two seasons at Chattanooga State (Tenn.) CC. Cheely has a stolen base in every game and has four extra-base hits in the first 12 games this season.

HIGHLANDERS VS. THE A-10

Radford has had limited success against schools in the A-10. The Highlanders have played 10 different schools from the conference and have 3 wins against A-10 foes.

STAYING IN THE SOUTH

Despite seeing 23 different opponents this season, the Highlanders will play in just five different states during the regular season: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Tennessee.

SEEING EXTRAS

Radford returners combined for 83 extra-base hits this season. These are the first six home games of the season for the Highlanders, who will play 29 games at Carter Memorial Stadium in 2020.

ROAD TRIPPIN’

The Highlanders began the 2020 season with an 11-game road trip, featuring three-game series at North Carolina Central, Mercer and Georgia Southern with midweek games at Liberty and Virginia Tech.

NEW FACES IN THE FOLD
Radford welcomes 11 new players into the Highlander program for the 2020 season. Those 11 players are:
- Michael Shelton - INF
- Alex Perkins - P
- Austin Kaplan - INF
- Bryce Frederick - INF
- Andrew Boyd - P
- Zach Hoekstra - INF
- Sean Cheely - OF
- Tanner Barrs - OF/P
- Nick Breznak - P
- Anthony Galati - OF
- Danny Mosher - C/OF

BEAR DOWN ON SOUTHPAWS
Bruce Hudson has not allowed a hit to a left-handed hitter in 11 at-bats this season. Hudson is one of two Radford relief pitchers who have not allowed a hit to a left-handed hitter this season.

I’LL FACE THE RIGHTY
Freshmen Andrew Boyd and Nick Breznak have been hard to hit from the right-handed batters box this season. The two have combined to limit right-handed hitting to a .178 batting average (5-for-28) across seven innings this season.

TAKE YOUR BASE
Radford led the Big South in walks during the 2019 season, drawing the free pass 292 times. That mark was 31 more than any other team in the conference and ranked 33rd in the nation in that category. The Highlanders have earned a free base 96 times this season (68 walks, 28 HBP).

ALL AROUND THE ORDER
Radford had three different players hit in six different spots in the lineup last season (Higggson, Bryant, Whitacre).

BACK IN THE MIDDLE
Both of Radford’s primary middle infielders from the 2019 season are back in the fold, as redshirt senior Colby Higgerson played at shortstop and sophomore David Bryant played at second base.

HELLO, NEW FRIEND
Three opponents on Radford’s 2020 schedule mark first-time opposition for the Highlanders, including the opening weekend series. Radford has never faced North Carolina Central, Notre Dame or St. Bonaventure prior to this season.

CALL TO THE BULLPEN
Radford has used 10 different players out of the bullpen through the first 12 games of the 2020 season. That number includes one position player, Austin Kaplan.

STREAKING!
Anthony Galati has the longest active on-base streak on the team. The junior outfielder from Sparks, Nevada, and has reached base safely in all 13 games he has appeared in during the 2020 season. He is one of two Highlanders who currently have a double-digit on-base streak.

STAY ON BASE
12 different Highlanders currently have active on-base streaks, led by Anthony Galati’s 13-game on-base streak that spans the current duration of the season. J.D. Mundy has a seven-game hit streak, while Galati has hit in six straight.

THIS IS OUR HOUSE
Since completely renovating Carter Memorial Stadium in the 2011 season, the Highlanders have accumulated 126 home wins.

ROUND THE BASES
Radford hit five home runs in a game on two separate occasions during the 2019 season - in wins over Bucknell (Feb. 24) and Appalachian State (Apr. 23). That mark was the most in a game by any Big South team. The Highlanders also hit four home runs in a game as part of a 20-run outburst against Winthrop (Mar. 30).

BOMB SQUAD
In addition to having the most homers in a game by any team in the Big South, Radford also led the conference in home runs for the 2019 season by a wide margin. The Highlanders hit 68 dingers in 2019, 16 more than the next-best team in the conference. Radford’s 68 home runs also set a new school record, breaking the previous record of 60, which was set in 1995.

NEWCOMER MAKING NOISE
Outfielder Sean Cheely earned a spot on Perfect Game’s Preseason All-Big South team. Cheely arrives in the New River Valley after hitting .351 with 71 stolen bases across two seasons at Chattanooga State (Tenn.) CC.

SEEING DOUBLE (DIGITS)
Radford has won at least 10 Big South games in 10 of the last 11 seasons. Included in those seasons are both of Radford’s Big South tournament-winning years and the Highlanders’ lone regular season championship.

BREAKING OUT THE BROOMS
Radford’s opening weekend sweep of N.C. Central marked the first time since 1993 that the Highlanders swept their opening weekend series and was the first time since 2018 since they swept a non-conference series.

THE BROOMS ARE BACK
Radford took care of business in its home-opening series, completing a three-game sweep of Canisius while outscoring the Golden Griffins, 34-10. This is the first time since the 2015 season that the Highlanders have swept multiple series and was the first time since 2018 since they swept a non-conference series.

HOME COOKIN’
Radford has an overall record of 199-169-1 against the teams it will face at Carter Memorial Stadium this season. The Highlanders have a winning record against four of the five Big South opponents it will see at home, with only Campbell (28-31) claiming a winning record against Radford among Big South teams to visit the New River Valley in 2020.

HOVERING AROUND THE TOP
In addition to being picked third in the Big South’s preseason poll, the Highlanders were picked to finish third by Perfect Game and second by D1Baseball. D1 Baseball also selected J.D. Mundy as their preseason Big South Player of the Year.

EXTRA MILEAGE
Starting pitcher Brandon Donovan has logged the two longest outings of his career in his first two appearances this season. Donovan went 6.2 innings at N.C. Central and 7.0 innings at Mercer.

EARLY DAMAGE
Radford is at its best when scoring early and limiting early damage. The Highlanders were 14-5 when scoring in the first inning, but 11-11 when allowing the opposition to score in the first inning. Radford is 6-0 when scoring in the first inning this season.

NOISE ON THE BASEPATHS
Radford is 3-1 when out-hitting opponents this season, compared to a 1-6 record when being out-hit.

CLOSING THE DOOR
Radford was tied or ahead after six, seven and eight innings in all three of its opening weekend wins over N.C. Central. The Highlanders have not won a game this season when trailing after eight (0-7) and have not lost when leading or tied after eight (4-0).

JUST KEEP MOVING
Radford’s 20-11 win over Winthrop on Mar. 30 provided plenty of season highlights. The Highlanders have not won a game this season when leading or tied after six, seven and eight innings in all three of its opening weekend wins over N.C. Central. The Highlanders have not won a game this season when trailing after eight (0-7) and have not lost when leading or tied after eight (4-0).

KEEP ON HITTING
Colby Higgerson, Stratton Podaras and Will Harless are the only Highlanders who have a three-hit game this season. Higgerson and Podaras each have two three-hit games and a four-hit game.

HOT OFF THE BENCH
Radford’s returning players combined to hit .364 (12-for-33) in pinch-hitting situations last season. That number also includes five walks drawn. Morgan Wyatt, Tanner Barrs and Austin Kaplan have pinch-hit singles this year for Radford.

STAYING HOME LATE
Though the Highlanders open with 11 straight road games, they also have 19 of their final 27 contests at home, including stretches of eight and 11 consecutive home games in April and May.

KNOW YOUR OPPONENT
George Mason enters the contest with a 1-12 record. The Patriots won their first game of the season in their most recent weekend series vs. Winthrop after dropping their first 11 games to open the season. George Mason has a run differential of minus-72 this season (116-45).

THE BROOMS ARE BACK
Radford took care of business in its home-opening series, completing a three-game sweep of Canisius while outscoring the Golden Griffins, 34-10. This is the first time since the 2015 season that the Highlanders have swept multiple series and was the first time since 2018 since they swept a non-conference series.

Karl Kuhn is in his first season as Radford's head baseball coach. Kuhn spent the past 16 seasons as the pitching coach at the University of Virginia, where the pitching staff has met unparalleled success.

“We are thrilled to announce that Karl Kuhn is the sixth head coach in Highlander baseball history,” Lineburg stated. “Kuhn has a stellar background as an assistant coach at the University of Virginia working with Brian O’Connor, one of college baseball’s greatest head coaches. Karl is widely regarded as one of the best pitching coaches in college baseball and this will serve him well as the head coach at Radford. We are extremely confident that Karl will take Radford Baseball to new heights in the coming years.”

“Kuhn has led one of the nation’s top pitching staffs in year one and year two all the way through to the present season.”

“I’m extremely excited about the opportunity to lead the Radford Baseball program,” Kuhn stated. “It’s such an incredible privilege and an honor. The mark of a good coach is to make a player a better player. The mark of a good leader is to make a man a better man. I am committed to doing both. We’re going to have a lot of fun, but it won’t be easy. Committing to something larger than yourself is where the true rewards lie. We will keep that in the forefront of our mission every day. We’ll build this program on things like accountability, responsibility and selflessness with an emphasis on honesty, trust and mutual respect. I can’t wait to meet our team, get on the field with them and share my vision for Radford Baseball with our alumni, fans, and most importantly with our recruits.”

In 2010, Kuhn was the recipient of Collegiate Baseball’s Tom House Teaching Professional of the Year Award. The award recognizes excellence in teaching pitchers and acknowledges years of continued education and study of the latest pitching techniques as identified by scientific fact and biomechanical research.

During Kuhn’s tenure in Charlottesville, UVA has produced 44 shutouts, including an ACC-record 16 in 2011. The Cavaliers also have boasted a league-high 29 ACC Pitchers of the Week during the last 16 years.

Five of Kuhn’s UVA proteges have gone on to reach the major league level. Michael Schwimer (Philadelphia) and Mike Ballard (Baltimore) each reached the big leagues in 2011. Sean Doolittle made his MLB debut in 2012 with the Oakland Athletics and was named to the MLB All-Star game twice (2014 & 2018). Kyle Cockett ripped through the Cleveland Indians farm system in less than a year, debuting with the Indians in May 2014 and becoming the first player from the 2013 draft class to reach the big leagues. Tyler Wilson made his MLB debut with the Baltimore Orioles in May 2015.

42 of Kuhn’s Virginia pitchers have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including 25 in the top 10 rounds. Four Cavaliers have been picked in the first round of the draft. Danny Hultzen, the second overall pick in 2011, Nick Howard, the 19th selection in 2014, Nathan Kirby, the 40th pick in 2015 and Daniel Lynch 34th selection in 2018.

Kuhn has coached 15 All-Americans and 28 All-ACC honorees in his tenure at Virginia. A three-time First-Team All-American, Hultzen was Virginia’s first ever ACC Freshman of the Year in 2009, then followed it up by becoming the first-ever two-time ACC Pitcher of the Year in 2010 and 2011 before being selected second overall in the 2011 MLB Draft. In addition, Doolittle (2005-06), Jacob Thompson (2007) and Brandon Kline (2011) each earned All-America honors and played for the U.S. Collegiate National Team.

Prior to becoming the first assistant coach to be hired at Virginia under current head coach Brian O’Connor, Kuhn served as the associate head coach and pitching coach at Little Rock for seven years from 1997-2003. At Little Rock, Kuhn managed all aspects of the Trojans’ pitching staff and was also the recruiting coordinator for the program. As recruiting coordinator, Kuhn had five-consecutive recruiting classes ranked nationally by Collegiate Baseball during his tenure with the Trojans.

Before coaching at Little Rock, Kuhn spent three years as the pitching coach at Charleston Southern. Under his leadership, the pitching staff led CSU to its first baseball conference championship and NCAA Regional appearance in school history. Kuhn also worked at Valencia Community College in Orlando, Fla. Prior to that, he was pitching coach for two years at Buchholz High School in Gainesville, Fla.

Kuhn started his college career at Valencia Community College, where he played from 1987-89, then concluded his career playing one season for the University of Florida in 1990. He is a 1992 graduate of Florida.

Kuhn is married to the former Katrina Gosdin. The couple has two sons, Kason and Kruse.
Matt Rein is in his third season as the Highlanders' pitching coach after being retained by head coach Karl Kuhn.

"After knowing and competing against Radford and Matt's pitching staffs over the last two years, retaining Matt was an easy decision," Kuhn said. "His pitching staffs worked quick, threw strikes and always competed at the highest level. One of the best compliments you can give another coach is that you didn’t like facing their team or their pitching staff. That is the way I felt about Matt's pitching staffs at Radford. Matt is organized, highly motivated and is dedicated to making our pitchers the best they can be as well as attaining all their goals at Radford and beyond."

In his first season, Rein led Radford’s pitching staff to a 4.84 ERA, ranking fifth in the Big South. The Highlander staff turned in a 4.75 ERA in conference action, while limiting Big South foes to a .247 clip. Radford was extremely hard on left-handed bats, holding opposing southpaws to a .239 batting average.

After leading the conference in wins, Austin Ross was named to the All-Big South First Team after finishing the 2018 campaign with a 9-4 record, ranking 30th nationally in wins. Ross struck out 69 in 68.2 innings, walking only 22 batters.

Leading the squad with a 3.54 ERA, opposing teams only hit .233 off Ross.

In Rein’s second season leading the pitching staff, he lowered the staff ERA to a 4.69. The staff tallied a 2.5:1 walk ratio. The pitching staff led Radford to its first 30-win season since 2015. Andrew Nardi and Zack Ridgely ranked inside the Big South's top 10 in ERA for 2019. Nardi was fourth with a 3.60, while Ridgely was 10th with a 3.86. The duo also ended the year inside the top 10 in walks and earned runs allowed per game. Cameron Fritz had the eighth most wins of any Big South pitcher with a 6-2 record.

Rein comes to Radford after serving as the pitching coach at Coker (S.C.) for the past two seasons. In his second season with the Cobras, Rein's staff turned in a 5.54 ERA with two pitchers earning all-conference honors.

Rein arrived at Coker after a two-year stint at Longwood, where he guided a Lancer pitching staff that posted a 5.45 ERA with 440 strikeouts in 2015.

Prior to coaching at Longwood, Rein spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals minor league system as a member of the Johnson City Cardinals and Batavia Muckdogs. He made 15 appearances on the mound in 2011 for Johnson City, compiling a 2-1 record with a 3.60 ERA. He hurled 26 strikeouts in 20 innings pitched, while allowing 23 hits for a .284 average.

Rein also spent a summer pitching for the Lake Erie Crushers of the Frontier League. He made 20 appearances, including 18 starts, throwing 121.1 innings with a 2.36 ERA.

No stranger to the Big South, Rein was a four-year standout at Coastal Carolina. In 2011, he was named an American Baseball Coaches' Association (ABCA) All-American after earning Big South Pitcher of the Year accolades. He was also a two-time All-Big South First Team selection, totaling 21 career wins with a 2.99 career ERA for the Chanticleers.

A native of Houston, Texas, he received his bachelor’s degree from Coastal Carolina in May 2013.
Josh Reavis is in his third season as Radford’s hitting coach after being retained by head coach Karl Kuhn.

“In whatever organization you are in, you want people that are invested and have pride in where they are working. Josh Reavis has both,” Kuhn said. “He is a former walk-on player and turned himself into a team captain and leader at Radford. Nothing says you love your organization more than after you play at a school, you continue to coach at that school. Josh Reavis bleeds red and white. He is a Highlander through and through. I don’t know if I’ve met another individual that cares about his alma mater more than Josh Reavis. He is a tireless worker and is going to do wonders with our offense. I know that he and coach Rein together are going to bring in tremendous student-athletes that represent Radford baseball and Radford University the right way.” - Karl Kuhn, Head Baseball Coach, Radford University

Reavis also was an instrumental part in leading Kyle Butler and J.D. Mundy to First-Team All-Big South selections. He also lent a helping hand to Spencer Horwitz, who was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 22nd round. Horwitz was an all-conference honorable mention member in 2019.

The 2018 season saw the Highlander offense finish with a .252 average and 267 RBIs, while leading the Big South with 19 triples. After only earning 194 walks in 2017, Radford ranked second in the league with 269 this season.

Reavis was instrumental in the development of Stratton Podaras during his sophomore season behind the plate. Hitting .253 with a .403 on-base percentage, Podaras threw out 16 runners in 36 attempts.

Reavis returns to Radford following a two-year stint in the Toronto Blue Jays organization. The former Highlander backstop spent his two seasons between the Northwest League’s Vancouver Canadians and the Appalachian League’s Bluefield Blue Jays.

As a player for Radford, Reavis helped lead the Highlanders to 137 wins and 2015 NCAA Tournament appearance.

The Midlothian, Va., native was instrumental in leading the Highlanders to their first Big South Regular Season and Tournament Championships in program history.

“I’m very excited to take this opportunity at my alma mater and continue the tradition of excellence within our program,” Reavis added. “Our guys continued to develop throughout the season and really saw how good they could be toward the end of the year. I’m ready to get started and help bring another championship to Radford.”

A career .290 hitter, Reavis appeared in 170 games over his four-year career, starting in 147 of them. Reavis tallied 165 hits over the span, driving in 100 runs and scoring 109. The 2015 season saw him drive in a career-best 41 runs on 12 doubles. Over his career, Reavis was hit by 24 pitches, which rank 10th in program history, including getting plunked 13 times his senior season.

Reavis earned a bachelor’s degree in exercise sport and health education from Radford in 2015. He was a 38th-round selection by the Blue Jays in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.
Josh Merrigan is in his first season as an assistant coach for the Highlanders after joining the program in September 2019.

Merrigan comes to Radford as a former assistant at Youngstown State, Highland Community College and Morningside Community College. Merrigan will assist Josh Reavis with the hitters and the infielders as well as serve as a camp coordinator for Highlander Baseball Camps.

"After having a lot of interest in the volunteer position on a national level I felt that it was the most important thing for our student-athletes to have someone of the pedigree of Josh to join us," Kuhn said. "His coaching and playing experiences are invaluable. Both at the collegiate and community college level, as well as playing at Oklahoma State and minor league level with the Rockies and the Cardinals. Josh is going to bring an incredible amount of energy to our program. I’ve known Josh for over 25 years, I know what kind of man he is and the type of character he has. His number one focus is going to be the dedication and the development of our student-athletes here at Radford."

In 2018-19, Merrigan worked for Harrisburg Baseball Association in South Dakota within the 18U organization having many duties on and off the baseball field. He also coached in the Valley Baseball League as a part of the New Market Rebels staff.

Merrigan comes to the New River Valley after a two-year stint at Youngstown State for the 2017-18 seasons. In his first year at Youngstown State, Merrigan and the YSU staff injected a new energy into the program. With largely the same roster from the previous season along with some late additions over the summer, the Penguins won more games during the 2017 regular season than in five of the previous six years. Additionally, YSU tied for its most Horizon League wins since 2009.

Three senior pitchers were a big factor in the improvement for Youngstown State. Jeremy Quinlan battled through injuries to go 3-0 over nine starts with a 3.95 ERA. He earned complete-game victories in consecutive home starts in April, and YSU went on to have more complete games from its staff than in any of the previous seven years. Quinlan finished his career ranking seventh in school history in games started while also ranking among the top 20 in career innings and strikeouts.

Merrigan came to Youngstown having served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, during the 2016 season. The Mustangs had a 44-16 record, and the pitching staff was a big contributor with 423 strikeouts, the ninth-most in the NAIA. Individually, closer Lance Spongberg ranked 18th in the country with eight saves.

Prior to his appointment at Morningside, Merrigan was the recruiting coordinator and assistant coach at Highland Community College (Highland, Kan.) in 2015. He served in the same capacity at Wayne State College (Wayne, Neb.) in 2014.

Before entering the college ranks, Merrigan served as an Associate Scout for the Tampa Bay Rays from 2008-13.

Merrigan guided several teams to state tournament appearances while coaching Legion teams in South Dakota. His 2007 Sioux Falls Post 15 West team won South Dakota’s ‘A’ American Legion championship and finished third in the American Legion Central Plains Regional.

Merrigan was drafted three separate times in his playing career and pitched two seasons in the St. Louis Cardinals organization from 2001-02. He was drafted for the first time in the 18th round of the 1997 MLB Draft out of Vermillion High School in South Dakota by the Montreal Expos. The Expos selected him again a year later in the 33rd round, and the Cardinals drafted him in the 17th round in 2001.

In 2001, he pitched for the New Jersey Cardinals in the New York-Penn League, which is the same league that the Youngstown-area Mahoning Valley Scrappers play in. Merrigan went on to pitch two seasons in the Northern League for the Sioux Falls Canaries and the Sioux City Explorers in 2003 and 2004. He was selected as a Northern League All-Star in 2003.

As a collegian, Merrigan pitched two seasons at Butler Community College where he posted a two-year record on the mound of 10-4 and earned all-conference honors. He went on to pitch as a junior and senior at Oklahoma State and was named Second-Team All-Big 12 in both seasons. He had a 16-6 record in his two seasons in Stillwater.

Merrigan earned his bachelor’s degree in sociology from Oklahoma State. He has a son named J.D.
